
IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES,

FEBRUARY 28, 1827.

The Committee of Finance, to whom was referred the bill, entitled "An act making appropriations for the Indian Department for the year eighteen hundred and twenty-seven," report the same with the following

AMENDMENT:

Sec. 1. At the end of the 11th line insert:

1 For the payment of the claims of sundry citizens of the 2 United States for depredations committed on them by the 3 Sac, Fox, Kickapoo, Osage, Piankeshaw, Pottawattamie, Pu-
4 ant, Winnebago, and Ioway, tribes of Indians, according to 5 the amounts allowed and recommended to be paid to said
6 citizens, respectively, by the Superintendent of Indian Af-
7 fairs at St. Louis, as shown in his report to the Secretary of 8 War, under date of the twelfth of January, eighteen hun-
9 dred and twenty-six, thirty-two thousand three hundred and 10 twenty-four dollars sixty-eight and one-half cents.

11 For defraying the expenses of holding a treaty with the 12 Cherokee Indians, for the purpose of extinguishing their 13 claim to lands within the limits of the State of North Caro-
14 lina ; and, also, for the purpose of extinguishing their claim to 15 as much land as will be necessary for a canal to connect the 16 Highwassee and Canasaga with each other, the sum of ten 17 thousand dollars.
